

Boundary bias: at the edge of the data, a local mean lags the trend;
a local line removes that bias to first order.

