

Ishikawa's construction: an ordered-label field with a convex penalty becomes a min-cut on a layered graph — solved exactly, fast.

